

Dr. Mohammad Ta'Amnha is an academic and professional trainer and consultant in the Human Resources area. He has a Ph.D. in Human Resources Management. He got this highest academic degree from the University of East Anglia- UK in 2014 and has worked for the German Jordanian University. In addition, He has several prestigious professional certificates, such as Senior Professional in Human Resources - International (SPHRi) and (GPHR) from the HR Certification Institute (HRCI), USA, Certified Professional (SHRM-CP) from the Society For Human Resource Management, USA, Certified Employer Branding Leader from the Australian Employer Branding College, and Training of Trainer from the BIOFORCE INSTITUTE.

In addition to his outstanding career in the academic realm, he is also highly engaged in the industrial sector. He develops, customizes, and delivers several professional training courses for individuals and companies, such as Diploma in HRM, Certified Consultant in HRM, and HR for Non-HR Managers and HR professionals- NGOs. He is also a specialist in HR auditing, one aspect of the Risk Management function conducted to identify weaknesses in companies' HR systems, assess the level of risk involved, and then work to turn these weaknesses into strengths.

Dr. Mohammad also works with companies to create high-standard HR systems to enable them to utilize their human capital effectively.

He has three chapters published in international journals and books and participated in several national and international conferences, workshops, and seminars. Moreover, he has published numerous research articles in HRM in top-refereed journals indexed in the Australian Business Deans Council (ABDC) and Scopus databases.

You can reach Dr. Mohammad via mobile number:+962 775313876 or email: mohammad.taamnha@gju.edu.jo.